

Contents

Spring 2021

16

The trader's trinity

Liz Barlow

Considering the history of trade, language, standards and the links between them.

19

Proofreading for fiction

Jen Phillips

Sharing the similarities and differences of proofreading fiction compared to proofreading technical content.

22

What's in a name?

Ciaran Dodd

Highlighting the increasing importance of managing and standardising language.

25

How to write a glossary

Warren Singer

Discussing the usage of glossaries in technical documentation.

26

Writing for eLearning

Helen Hill

Providing a number of ways to improve your eLearning content.

30

Accessibility: beyond physical barriers

Jon Hart

Explaining global barriers and the impact of COVID-19 on accessibility.

34

B/ad grammar: good copy innit

Ben Masters

Looking at the use of language and non-standard grammar in classic and contemporary copywriting.

37

Microsoft Word shortcuts

Katherine Judge

Providing suggestions for revisiting how you use Word.

Regular columns

38

MadCap tips

Matthew Ellison

40

Ethical dilemmas

Warren Singer

42

Editing

Jean Rollinson

44

Book review

Brilliant Presentation
by Richard Hall.

Reviewed by Alison Peck.

46

A day in the life

Margaretha Hopman

ISTC news

4

From the editor

Katherine Judge

5

Letters from readers

6

President's view

Linda Robins

8

ISTC Contact Information

9

UK Technical Communication Award news

10

Communicator feedback

12

Continuous Professional Development (CPD)

cover

© Photo by Thirdman from Pexels
www.pexels.com/photo/wood-red-coffee-office-5649422

What does it mean to be an ISTC member?

- Mentoring scheme
- TCUK annual conference
- UK Technical Communication Awards recognition
- Publications: Communicator, InfoPlus, ISTC Books
- ISTC Code of Professional Practice

